Chapter 1 by Sarah Talmage

The ground shook as I landed clumsily on my driveway. I nonchalantly brushed off sediment that landed on my suit and walked up to the front of the house.

When I got inside, I slipped the suit from my filthy body and reluctantly threw it in the washing machine. I looked around before doing so, and decided to see if anyone was home.

"Mom!" I hollered up the stairs. "I'm home!"

I heard a loud, banging upstairs and went to investigate. Knowing that our old farmhouse had super creaky steps, I decided to use my powers.

The wind around me built up slowly, cascading in circular motions around my body. My feet were swept up in a familiar feeling and in a few seconds, I was flying.

I gently rode up the wooden stairs of the house making sure to be quiet. Then, I heard a panicked gasp erupt from my bedroom.

"Dorothy!" She screamed. "Call the police!"
